House Bill 4324 (As Introduced)

Topic: Unsolicited E-mails
Sponsor: Representative Marleau
Co-sponsors: None
Committee: House Energy and Technology

Date Introduced: February 16, 2005

Date of Summary: February 28, 2005

The bill amends the Unsolicited Commercial E-mail Protection Act by increasing the penalties for violations. Violation of the act would be classified as a felony rather than a misdemeanor. The penalty would be increased from imprisonment for not more than 1 year or a fine of not more than $10,000 or both to not more than 10 years or not more than $25,000 or both. The penalty for violation in furtherance of another crime would increase from 4 years imprisonment or $25,000 or both to 15 years or $15,000 or both.
